

“Come, Lord Jesus, To Redeem Us”

Text: Gary A. Parrett. Tune: NETTLETON

Intro: | Bm Bm/A| Bm/G | Bm Bm/A| Bm/G |

Order: v1, v2, v3, v4.

D A G D
Come, Lord Jesus, to redeem us from our foes and from our fears.

Bm A G D
We await the hand of mercy that will wipe away our tears.

D/F# G A Bm
We have labored long in darkness, even now our hearts grow weak.

D A G Bm Bm/A| Bm/G|
How we long for your appearing and your great salvation seek.

D A G D
Come, Lord Jesus, just and righteous, bring your pure and piercing light.

Bm A G D
For we know when you appear, Lord, ev'ry wrong will be made right.

D/F# G A Bm
You will vanquish all the proud ones. You will lift up all the cursed.

D A G D
O the first shall be the last, then, and the last shall be the first.

D A G D
Now prepare a path before Him: In the desert make a way.

Bm A G D
Take the gospel to the nations and proclaim his coming Day.

D/F# G A Bm
Ev'ry mountain must be leveled; Ev'ry valley must be raised.

D A G Bm Bm/A| Bm/G|
Then all flesh shall see his glory. God shall be forever praised.

D A G D
Raise the cry of “Maranatha!” We shall soon behold our King.

Bm A G D
To the Alpha and Omega, this one prayer and plea we sing:

D/F# G A Bm
Joining voices with the Spirit, we the Bride of Christ, say “Come!”

D A G Bm Bm/A| Bm/G|
Come, Lord Jesus, come and free us from this death and bring us home.
