

“There Is a Fountain”

Words: William Cowper (1731-1800). Music: Charles Mason.

A D

v. 1 There is a fountain filled with blood

A E

Drawn from Immanuel's veins

F#m D

And sinners plunged be-neath that flood

A E D

Lose all their guilty stains

A D

Lose all their guilty stains

F#m E

Lose all their guilty stains

A D

And sinners plunged be-neath that flood

F#m E D A

Lose all their guilty stains

A D

v.2 Dear dying Lamb Thy precious blood

A E

Shall never lose its power

F#m D

Till all the ransomed church of God

A E D

Be saved to sin no more

A D

Be saved to sin no more

F#m E

Be saved to sin no more

A D

Till all the ransomed church of God

F#m E D A

Be saved to sin no more

“There Is a Fountain”

Words: William Cowper (1731-1800). Music: Charles Mason.

A D

v.3E'er since by faith I saw the stream

A E

Thy flowing wounds supply

F#m D

Redeeming love has been my theme

A E D

And shall be till I die

A D

And shall be till I die

F#m E

And shall be till I die

A D

Redeeming love has been my theme

F#m E D A

And shall be till I die